- staff are expected to communicate respectfully and honestly
- staff school email addresses will be made available to parents
- staff will endeavour to respond to emails and phone calls within 48 hours initially and if a more detailed response is required or appropriate, within 7 days (while many staff do complete administrative work in the evenings or on weekends, this is not an expectation or requirement of their role)
- staff will communicate respectfully and honestly
- the school will provide timely notification of school events & activities wherever possible

Expectations of parents

- parents are expected to communicate respectfully and honestly (aggressive communication is not acceptable and staff have been advised to discontinue such interactions and refer the matter to the Principal or Assistant Principal)
- parents are reminded that staff are not always available for 'on the spot' meetings, particularly before or immediately after school
- remember that your child may not always have told you the entire story take the time to listen to your child and also to speak calmly with the teacher
- in general, it is most effective to raise a concern with the class teacher in the first instance following up with an email summarising the discussion is also a useful strategy
- if an issue is urgent, contact the Principal / Assistant Principal directly
- parents are expected to read information that is distributed in relation to school events, activities and procedures
